Leo Brent Robillard (Author of The Road to Atlantis)

Leo Brent Robillard "Leo Brent Robillard's The Road to Atlantis is a poignant, resonant tale of a family's dissolution following the death of their daughter. In gorgeous, gripping prose, he explores how individuals cope with tragedy and how grief sifts through the generations until it can finally settle and heal.

Leo Brent Robillard: The Road to Atlantis -- Book Review

The Road to Atlantis tells the story of an ordinary family dealing with an extraordinary loss. In the aftermath, each character takes a different path in search of a new equilibrium. Characters are the heart of this story, and the author has done a masterful job creating seemingly simple characters who are anything but. Robillard effectively drags the reader on a painful trek through the ...

Quill & Quire says "This novel packs more emotional wallop than many books twice or three times its length, which is a testament to Robillard's surgically precise prose...This makes The Road to Atlantis a welcome rarity: a multi-generational family saga that zips along at the pace of a thriller."

Leo Brent Robillard

The Road to Atlantis, his fourth book, follows the Henry family on a summer vacation. Driving along the coast, they stop for a break at the beach. Matty and Nat build castles in the sand as Anne and David take turns minding the children. A moment of distraction, a blink of the eye, and the life they know is swept away forever. "Robillard is a confident storyteller, with an eye for detail and ...
